

Recently, Eastern Shore First printed an old map of our area from 1827. At that time, Chincoteague was a barrier island end to end with Assateague to the north and separated by a narrow inlet. In those days, “Piney Island” was ocean front property to the east of Chincoteague!

